For The CALIFORNIA BOARD OF ACCOUNTANCY

BEFORE THE
CALIFORNIA BOARD OF ACCOUNTANCY
DEPARTMENT OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS

In the Matter of the Accusation Against:

DAVID DEUK-KWON KIM,

Respondent.

Case No. AC-2008-19

OAH No. L2008100544

PROPOSED DECISION

Amy C. Lahr, Administrative Law Judge, Office of Administrative Hearings, heard this matter on June 12, 2009, in Los Angeles, California.

Christina Thomas, Deputy Attorney General, represented complainant Daniel Rich.

Respondent David Deuk-Kwon Kim represented himself.

Oral and documentary evidence was presented at the hearing and the matter was submitted for decision.

FACTUAL FINDINGS

1. Complainant filed the Accusation in his official capacity as Executive Officer of the California Board of Accountancy (Board), Department of Consumer Affairs, State of California.

2. On August 3, 1990, the Board issued certified public accountant certificate number 56598 to Respondent. The certificate expired on February 1, 2007, and is currently in delinquent status. The certificate has not been previously disciplined.

3. On November 19, 2007, the Board conducted an investigation of Respondent based on an internal referral from the Licensing Division. Several events prompted the referral; namely that Respondent failed to appear at a scheduled meeting, after the Board provided him with four opportunities to do so. Respondent also failed to comply with the Board's continuing education requirements. Respondent's license was in delinquent status since February 2007. In addition, Respondent failed to register his firm name, "Kim & Co."

4. The facts underlying the investigation are that from July 2006 through February 2008, the Board made repeated attempts to meet with Respondent, and he failed to comply. Beginning on July 7, 2006, the Board notified Respondent that he was scheduled to meet with the Qualifications Committee on October 25, 2006, regarding his attestation for a licensee applicant, Etta Hur. Respondent signed a Certificate of Attest Experience in Public Accounting which certified that he employed Ms. Hur for 615 hours in 2004-2005. Respondent did not attend the October 25, 2006, meeting, and he requested a postponement. The Board accommodated Respondent's request. Three times thereafter, the Board scheduled meetings with Respondent, he requested adjournments, and eventually Respondent failed to appear at the fourth scheduled meeting. Respondent therefore failed to provide the explanation required by the Board regarding the certification of Ms. Hur's experience. This sequence of events lasted fifteen months, and delayed Ms. Hur's application process. Ultimately, the Board granted her license in November 2007, without the benefit of meeting with Respondent.

5. Upon further inquiry into Respondent's license history, the Board discovered that his firm name "Kim & Co." was not registered. The Secretary of State, California Business Portal indicated that "Kim & Co. Accountancy Corporation" had been filed on April 29, 2004, and is currently in suspended status. Respondent is listed as the agent for service of process.

6. Respondent did not comply with his continuing education basic requirements. For the period ending January 31, 2005, Respondent submitted a blank continuing education worksheet with his license renewal. Respondent did not take any required courses. Although Respondent checked the box which indicated that he requested a six-month extension to complete the required hours, to date, Respondent has not submitted any proof of completion to the Board.

7. Respondent was forthcoming and acknowledged that he had a problem following through with the Board, and that he should have done so. Respondent confirmed that he employed Ms. Hur to work on an audit in 2004-2005. He admitted that he did not register the firm name "Kim & Co." Respondent explained that sometime in 2004, he and four other accountants, who happened to share his last name, had planned to form an accounting firm under the name "Kim & Co." In the beginning of 2005, the partners had a dispute, and they decided to separate. According to Respondent, the practice dissolved before it was fully formed. Respondent no longer practices public accounting. Early in 2005, Respondent joined a start-up company, Finetex Technology Global Limited (Finetex), as a financial advisor. He is currently employed as Finetex's Executive Vice President. Finetex is primarily located in Hong Kong, and since 2005, Respondent has spent eighty to ninety percent of his time outside of the United States. This contributed significantly to his difficulty in coordinating with the Board. Respondent also admitted that he did not comply with the continuing education requirements, and he is willing to do so in order to retain his license. He would like the opportunity to keep his license in an inactive status.

8. The Board incurred $7,456.80 in costs to investigate and prosecute this matter, which costs are reasonable.

LEGAL CONCLUSIONS

1. Cause exists pursuant to Business and Professions Code 5100, subdivision (g), in conjunction with California Code of Regulations (CCR), title 16, section 69, subdivision (e), to suspend or revoke Respondent's license because he willfully failed to explain to the Board information in a certificate of experience that he completed, as set forth in factual finding numbers 3 and 4.

2. Cause exists pursuant to Business and Professions Code 5100, subdivision (g), in conjunction with California Code of Regulations (CCR), title 16, section 69, subdivisions (f), to suspend or revoke Respondent's license because his willful failure to act jeopardized an applicant's chances for obtaining a certificate, as set forth in factual finding numbers 3 and 4.

3. Cause exists pursuant to Business and Professions Code 5100, subdivision (g), in conjunction with California Code of Regulations (CCR), title 16, section 52, to suspend or revoke Respondent's license because he willfully failed to act in response to a Board inquiry, as set forth in factual finding numbers 3 and 4.

4. Cause exists pursuant to Business and Professions Code 5100, subdivision (g), in conjunction with California Code of Regulations (CCR), title 16, section 87, subdivisions (a) and (c), to suspend or revoke Respondent's license because he willfully failed to provide satisfactory evidence of his completion of qualifying continuing education requirements, as set forth in factual finding numbers 3 and 6.

5. Cause exists pursuant to Business and Professions Code 5060, to suspend or revoke Respondent's license because he failed to register the name of "Kim & Co." with the Board, as set forth in factual finding numbers 3 and 5.

6. All evidence presented in mitigation and rehabilitation has been considered. Although Respondent was remiss in failing to meet with the Board and explain Ms. Hur's application; in failing to register his firm name, and in complying with his continuing education requirements, he proffered extenuating circumstances, i.e., the failure of his practice and his new overseas career. In addition, Respondent ultimately verified that Ms. Hur received experience under his employ. Respondent accepted full responsibility for his conduct. Respondent has no previous discipline against his license. Given these circumstances, public protection can be achieved by the order that follows.

7. Cause exists pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 5107 to order Respondent to reimburse the Board for its reasonable costs of investigation and prosecution, in the sum of $7,456.80, as set forth in factual finding numbers 3, 4, 5, and 8, and legal conclusion numbers 1 through 5.

ORDER

Certified Public Accountant License number 56598, issued to Respondent David Deuk-Kwon Kim, is revoked; however, the revocation is stayed and Respondent's license is placed on probation for three years upon the following terms and conditions.

1. Obey All Laws. Respondent shall obey all federal, California, other states' and local laws, including those rules relating to the practice of public accountancy in California.

2. Cost Reimbursement. Respondent shall reimburse the Board $7,456.80 for its investigation and prosecution costs. The payment shall be made in quarterly amounts during the first two years of probation.

2. Submit Written Reports. Respondent shall submit, within 10 days of completion of the quarter, written reports to the Board on a form obtained from the Board. The Respondent shall submit, under penalty of perjury, such other written reports, declarations, and verification of actions as are required. These declarations shall contain statements relative to Respondent's compliance with all the terms and conditions of probation. Respondent shall immediately execute all release of information forms as may be required by the Board or its representatives.

3. Personal Appearances. Respondent shall, during the period of probation, appear in person at interviews/meetings as directed by the Board or its designated representatives, provided such notification is accomplished in a timely manner.

4. Comply With Probation. Respondent shall fully comply with the terms and conditions of the probation imposed by the Board and shall cooperate fully with representatives of the California Board of Accountancy in its monitoring and investigation of the Respondent's compliance with probation terms and conditions.

5. Practice Investigation. Respondent shall be subject to, and shall permit, a practice investigation of the Respondent's professional practice. Such a practice investigation shall be conducted by representatives of the Board, provided notification of such review is accomplished in a timely manner.

6. Comply With Citations. Respondent shall comply with all final orders resulting from citations issued by the California Board of Accountancy.

7. Tolling of Probation for Out-of-State Residence/Practice. In the event Respondent should leave California to reside or practice outside this state, Respondent must notify the Board in writing of the dates of departure and return. Periods of non-California residency or practice outside the state shall not apply to reduction of the probationary period, or of any suspension. No obligation imposed herein, including requirements to file written reports, reimburse the Board costs, and make restitution to consumers, shall be suspended or otherwise affected by such periods of out-of-state residency or practice except at the written direction of the Board.

8. Violation of Probation. If Respondent violates probation in any respect, the Board, after giving Respondent notice and an opportunity to be heard, may revoke probation and carry out the disciplinary order that was stayed. If an accusation or a petition to revoke probation is filed against Respondent during probation, the Board shall have continuing jurisdiction until the matter is final, and the period of probation shall be extended until the matter is final.

9. Completion of Probation. Upon successful completion of probation, Respondent's license will be fully restored.

10. Continuing Education Courses. Respondent shall complete professional education courses as specified by the Board or its designee at the time of Respondent's first probation appearance. The professional education courses shall be completed within a period of time designated and specified in writing by the Board or its designee, which time frame shall be incorporated as a condition of this probation. This shall be in addition to continuing education requirements for relicensing.

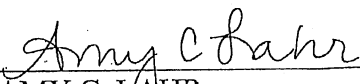

Failure to satisfactorily complete the required courses as scheduled or failure to complete same no later than 100 days prior to the termination of probation shall constitute a violation of probation.

11. Ethics Course/Examination. Respondent shall take and pass with a score of 90 percent or better a Board approved ethics examination during the first year of probation.

If Respondent fails to pass said examination within the time period provided or within two attempts, Respondent shall so notify the Board and shall cease practice until Respondent takes and successfully passes said exam, has submitted proof of same to the Board, and has been notified by the Board that he or she may resume practice. Failure to pass the required examination no later than 100 days prior to the termination of probation shall constitute a violation of probation.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this probation, failure to take and pass this examination within three years of the effective date of this order constitutes a separate cause for discipline of Respondent's license.

18 FIRST CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

19 (Willfully Impeding Applicant’s Certification Process)

20 13. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 5100(g) of the 21 Code in conjunction with Title 16 California Code of Regulations section 69(b) in that on or 22 about February 20, 2006, Respondent completed a Certificate of Attest Experience (Public 23 Accounting) to the Board on behalf of applicant E. H., his former employee.

24 14. By the Certificate of Attest Experience, Respondent attested that applicant
25 E.H. was an employee of “KIM & Co.” for the period of July 1, 2003 through August 31, 2005.
26 Respondent further attested that he was a shareholder of “KIM & Co.” and provided his personal
27 certificate number. Respondent attested that during the time of E.H.’s employment, she gained 28 satisfactory knowledge of current practice standards and pronouncements.

1                   15. Commencing on or before July 7, 2006 and continuing through
2 September, 2007, the Board's Qualifications Committee attempted to contact Respondent to
3 request that Respondent appear and present support for the certification of applicant E.H.
4 Notwithstanding the multiple requests by the Board, Respondent willfully impeded the
5 applicant's certification when he failed to comply with the Board's request. Respondent's
6 failure to act jeopardized applicant E.H.'s chances for obtaining a certificate.

7                                   SECOND CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

8                                   (Failure to Response to Board Inquiry)

9                   16. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 5100(g) of the
10 Code in conjunction with Title 16 California Code of Regulations section 52 in that Respondent
11 failed to act in response to the Board's inquiry regarding applicant E.H., as set forth more fully 12 in paragraph 15 above.

13                                   THIRD CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

14                                   (Willful Violation of Continuing Education Basic Requirements)

15                   17. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 5100(g) of the 16 Code in conjunction with Title 16 California Code of Regulations section 87 subdivision (g) in 17 that Respondent failed to comply with Title 16 California Code of Regulations section 87
18 subdivisions (a) and (c) in providing satisfactory evidence of his completion of qualifying
19 continuing education requirements (as described in Title 16 California Code of Regulations
20 section 88) and the reporting requirements (as described in Title 16 California Code of 21 Regulations section 89(a)) for the period February 1, 2003 through January 31, 2005.

22                                   FOURTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

23                                   (Use of Unregistered Name )

24                   18. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 5060 of the 25 Code in that Respondent practiced under the name "KIM & Co" during the period of July 1, 26 2003 through August 31, 2005. Respondent failed to registered the name of "KIM & Co." or 27 "Kim & Company" with the Board. At all times, Respondent's license was issued solely in the 28 name of "David Deuk-Kwon Kim" and not in any business name.

1 PRAYER

2 WHEREFORE, Complainant requests that a hearing be held on the matters herein
3 alleged, and that following the hearing, the California Board of Accountancy issue a decision:
